

All Along the Line

William Hughes, 1903

V. Paul Jones

$\text{♩} = 110$

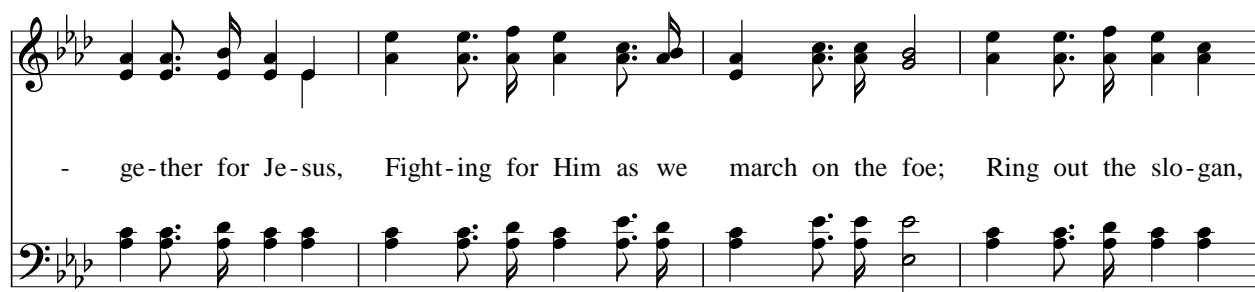

1. If we trem-ble in our fear, If we fal-ter in our place, Our
2. If the bat-tle rag-es fierce, In our Je-sus we will trust; Think 3. When the ba-ttle has been fought And the con-flict we have won, When we great com-mand-er's near, We'll look on Je-sus' face. Tho' the how His side was pierced, On Cal-va-ry for us! For He stand be-fore His throne, He'll say to us, "Well done." We have hosts of sin are com-ing, We'll not fal-ter nor give way; 'Neath the leads, our lov-ing Sav-ior, And in-spires us all to say, 'Neath the fought the fight for Je-sus And have con- quered sin's fell sway; 'Neath the ban-ner-cross of Je-sus We will sure-ly win the day.

Refrain

ban-ner-cross of Je-sus We will sure-ly win the day. All a-long the line stand toban-ner-cross of Je-sus We will sure-ly win the day.

ge-ther for Je-sus, Fight-ing for Him as we march on the foe; Ring out the slo-gan,

He will ne-ver leave us, Vic-to-ry wher-e'er we go!