

All over the World

Eliza Edmunds Stites Hewitt, 1896

William James Kirkpatrick

♩ = 90

1. Bear the good tid - ings all o - ver the world, Let the bright ban - ner of
2. Plant in the wil - der - ness Shar - on's sweet rose, Bless - ing will fol - low wher -
3. Think of the mil - lions who nev - er have heard One pre - cious prom - ise from
4. Oh, what a song shall in Heav - en be sung! By ev - ery na - tion and love be un - furled, Wher - ev - er sor - row and sin shall be found,

- ev - er it goes; Led, on - ward led by the Lord's guid - ing hand,
God's ho - ly Word; Think of the lives marred and dark - ened by sin, kin - dred and tongue; Some may be there through our ef - forts and prayer,

Refrain

There let the news of sal - va - tion re - sound.
O - pen "fresh springs" in the dry, thirst - y land. All o - ver the world,
Tell them the sto - ry that brings light with - in.
Joy ev - er - last - ing to - ge - ther we'll share.

All o - ver the world, Let the bright ban - ner of love be un - furled, All over the world.