

The Birthday of Our King

Harriet E. Rice Jones, 1886

Alonzo Judson Abbey

1. Hear the mer - ry Christ-mas bells, Sound-ing o'er the hills and dells; Men re - joice, and
2. Lit - tle eyes are shin - ing bright, From the heart's in - most de - light; As the an - gels
3. Youths and maid - ens gai - ly glide O'er the snow at ev - en - tide; Hear them chant and
4. Old - er hearts re - joice to - day; Well they may, yes, well they may: Ev - ery fear doth an - gels sing, 'Tis the birth-day of our King. Hear the bells, the mer-ry kind - ly bring Gifts this birth-day of our King. Hear the bells, the mer-ry gai - ly sing, On the birth-day of our King. Hear the bells, the mer-ry near - er bring, The glad com - ing of their King. Hear the bells, the mer-ry bells, Clear and sweet the mu-sic swells; Let them the mer-ry bells, Clear and sweet the mu-sic swell, the mu-sic swells;

ring, oh, let them ring, 'Tis the birth-day of our King.
Let them ring, Let them ring
