

Beautiful Sunshine

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1901

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Walk in the beau-ti - ful sun-shine, Smil-ing so cheer-ful and bright, Chas - ing the mist from the
 2. Walk in the beau-ti - ful sun-shine, Fall - ing in waves from the skies, Gild - ing the streams and the
 3. Walk in the beau-ti - ful sun-shine, Je - sus thy foot - steps will guide; While thou art safe in His mount - ain, Flood - ing the world with its light. Hark! the sweet voice of the Mas - ter val - leys, Scat - t'ring the sha - dows that rise. Hear the sweet voice of the Spir - it keep - ing, E - vil can ne - ver be - tide. Hear the sweet voice of His mer - cy Whis-pers in ac - cents di - vine, "Take thou no thought for the mor-row, On - ly the pre - sent is Soft - ly and ten - der - ly say, "Trust for what may be to - mor-row, Live in the joy of to - Kind - ly and lov - ing - ly say, "God will take care of the mor-row, Be thou con - tent with to - thine." Walk in the beau-ti - ful sun - shine, Smil-ing so cheer-ful and bright,

Refrain

 - day." beau-ti-ful sun - shine so cheer - ful and bright,
 - day."

Chas-ing the mist from the mount-ain, Flood-ing the world with its light.
 beau-ti-ful light.