

The Christian's Good Night

Sarah Doudney, 1871

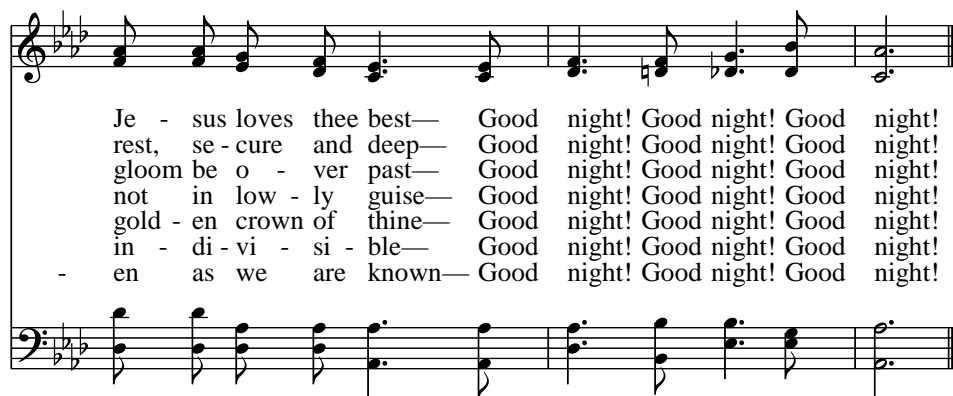

Ira David Sankey, 1884

♩ = 110

1. Sleep on, be - lov - èd,
 2. Calm is thy slum - ber
 3. Un - til the sha - dows
 4. Un - til the Eas - ter
 5. Un - til, made beau - ti - 6. On ly, "Good night," be -
 7. Un - til we meet a - sleep, and take thy rest; Lay down thy head up - as an in - fant's sleep; But thou shalt wake no from this earth are cast, Un - til He ga - thers glo - ry lights the skies, Un - til the dead in

 - ful by love di - vine, Thou, in the like - ness
 - lov - èd - not "fare - well!" A lit - tle while, and all
 - gain be - fore His throne, Clothed in the spot - less

- on the Sav - ior's breast; We love thee well, but more to toil and weep; Thine is a per - fect in His sheaves at last; Un - til the twi - light Je - sus shall a - rise, And He shall come, but of thy Lord shalt shine, And He shall bring that His saints shall dwell In hal - lowed un - i - son robe He gives His own, Un - til we know ev -

Je - sus loves thee best— Good night! Good night! Good night!
rest, se - cure and deep— Good night! Good night! Good night!
gloom be o - ver past— Good night! Good night! Good night!
not in low - ly guise— Good night! Good night! Good night!
gold - en crown of thine— Good night! Good night! Good night!
in - di - vi - si - ble— Good night! Good night! Good night!
- en as we are known— Good night! Good night! Good night!