

Come unto Me

George Orbin, 1899

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. "Hin - der the child - ren," they said to the Mas - ter, "Why should the mo - thers
 2. Safe in the arms of His ten - der com - pas - sion, Play - ful the prat - tlers
 3. Come now to Je - sus, oh, thrice hap - py wel - come, Wel - come to Him who
 4. Then in the day of His se - cond ap - pear - ing, When from His pre - sence bring them to Thee?" "Hin - der them not," was the an - swer of Je - sus, "Let all the lit - tle ones sat on His knee, Wait - ing to get His di - vine ben - e - dic - tion, Hap - py to hear Him say, died on the tree; Tho' He is reign - ing in man - sions of glo - ry, Yet does His Spir - it say, mount - ains shall flee, Sweet - er than ev - er will be the glad wel - come, As thou shalt hear Him say,

Refrain

come un - to Me."
 "Come un - to Me." "Come un - to Me, come un - to Me, Suf - fer all the lit - tle ones to come un - to Me;
 "Come un - to Me."
 "Come un - to Me."

Turn them not a - way, but bring them in to - day, And suf - fer them to come un - to Me."