

Ever Forward! Up and Onward

Elisha Albright Hoffman, 1914

Leander Lycurgus Pickett

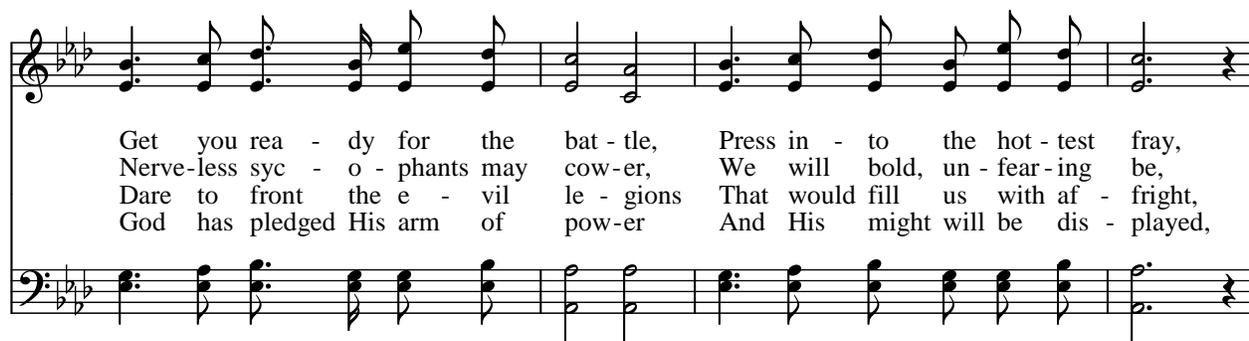

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Men of faith and men of cour-age, Wait-ing or - ders from the Lord,
2. "Ev - er for - ward! up and on - ward," Our Je - ho - vah bids us go;
3. Strike for right and strike for jus - tice, Strike for home and na - tive land!
4. Press the bat - tle! fear - less ev - er, And the foe - man must give way!

Here's a tel - e - gram from Heav-en! "On - ward! for - ward!" is the word;
"On - ward! for - ward! ev - er on - ward!" Ev - ery heart with faith a - glow;
Strike for God and for His king - dom With a firm and fear - less hand!
Press the bat - tle! ne - ver fal - ter! Vic - t'ry waits our flag to - day!

Get you rea - dy for the bat - tle, Press in - to the hot - test fray,
Nerve-less syc - o - phants may cow - er, We will bold, un - fear - ing be,
Dare to front the e - vil le - gions That would fill us with af - fright,
God has pledged His arm of pow - er And His might will be dis - played,

"On - ward! for - ward!" be the watch - word All a - long the lines to - day.
For Je - ho - vah's pledge as - sures us Ours will be the vic - to - ry.
For the Lord who reigns in Heav - en Will be with us in the fight.
If we press the ear - nest con - flict, Trust - ing Him and un - a - fraid.

Refrain

“Ev - er for - ward, up and on - ward!” Men, lift up your hearts and pray,

Trust in God and press the bat-tle, Vic-t'ry will be ours to - day.

