

Faith in the Blood

E. Pontoppidan, tr. by A. S. Wallgren

♩=115

1. If asked where-on I rest my claim To full sal-va - tion's
2. This is my hope's found - a - tion firm, Which ev - er shall enjoy, If no-thing more I need to name, Or o - ther words em-

- dure; Yea at the end of life's brief term, I'll rest there-on se-

- ploy, Be - sides our Sav - ior's blood and wounds, To me all - sa - tis-
- cure, And dread-ed death shall lose its sting, As of my Sav-ior's

- fy - ing grounds; I ans - wer then, "My claim is good! 'Tis wounds I sing; His pre - cious blood shall be the key That based on Je - sus' blood."

o - pens Heav'n for me.

