

Far Away

Alonzo Judson Abbey, 1879

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. I oft - en think of hea - then lands, Far a - way, far a - way, Where
 2. Oh, how I pi - ty child - ren there, Far a - way, far a - way, Al-
 3. But I will pray that God will send, Far a - way, far a - way, Some 4. And when the sil - ver trump-et swells, Far a - way, far a - way, And many an i - dol tem - ple stands, Far a - way; And there each hap - less

 - though the clime be pass - ing fair, Far a - way; I would not leave my tid - ings of my Sav - ior Friend, Far a - way; And ev - ery lit - tle all the love of Je - sus tells, Far a - way; The i - dols shall like child is led To bow to hea - then gods the head, While many a mut - tering hum - ble home, Midst fields of rich - est flow'rs to roam, If there no gos - pel I can spare Shall go to send the Bi - ble there, And men of God the Da - gon fall, And many a child on God shall call, And own their Sav - ior charm is said, Far a - way, far a - way.

 sound should come, Far a - way, far a - way.
 truth to bear, Far a - way, far a - way.
 Lord of all, Far a - way, far a - way.