

“Follow Me!” A Call So Tender

Andrew L. Skoog, 1890

$\text{♩} = 107$

1. “Fol-low Me!” A call so ten - der Falls up - on my list - 'ning ear; 'Tis the
 2. In - to pas - tures green He lead - eth, His own sheep He calls by name; When their
 3. Lit - tle flock, fear not! He shields thee From the dan - gers of the land. Hear His
 4. In His steps, then, I would fol - low, Seek in Him my all in all; I am

Refrain

voice of Christ, my Sav - ior, 'Tis the Shep - herd's call I hear.
 feet are sore and wear - y, In His arms He car - ries them. O that prom - ise: None shall ev - er Pluck thee from His might - y hand.
 safe, what - e'er be - falls me, When I heed His ten - der call.

call! Lov-ing call! 'Tis the sweet - est voice of all. How it O that ten - der call! Hear that lov - ing call! 'Tis the sweet - est voice of all. How it draws me near - er to Him When I hear my Shep - herd's call!

 draws, how it draws me near - er to Him When I hear, when I hear my Shep - herd's call!