

From North and South and East and West

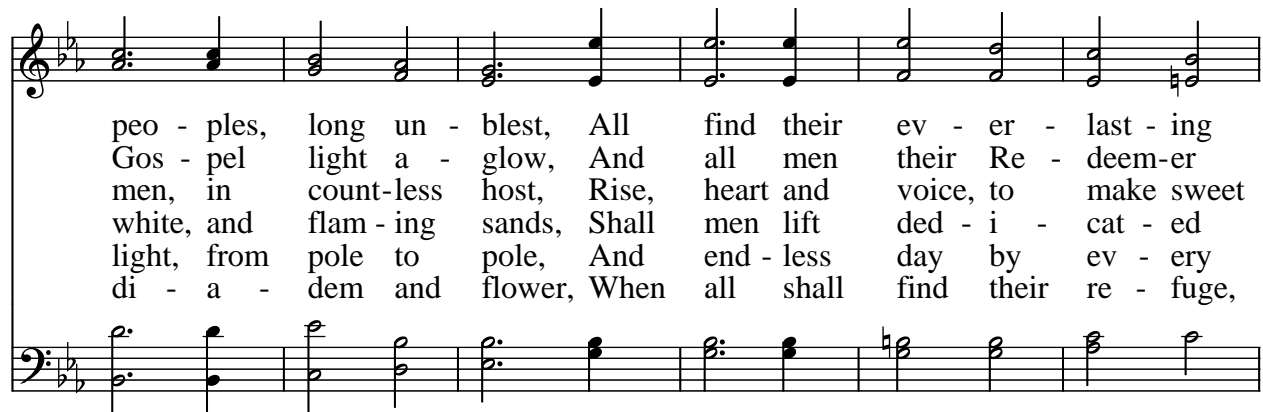

George Thomas Coster, 1864

Arthur Seymour Sullivan, 1874

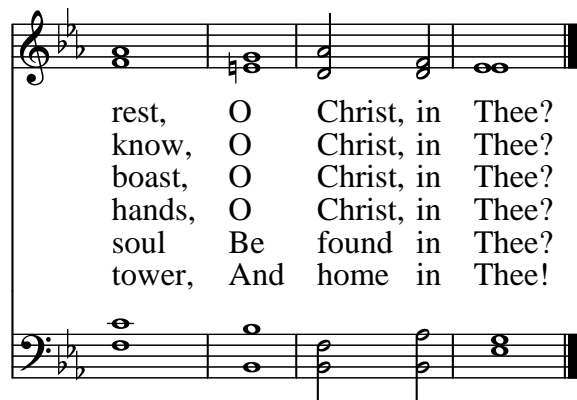

$\text{♩} = 170$

1. From north and south and east and west, When shall the
2. When shall the climes of age - less snow Be with the
3. When on each south - ern balm - y coast, Shall ran - somed
4. O when in all the Or - ient lands, From ci - ties
5. O when shall heath - en dark - ness roll A - way in
6. Bring, Lord, the long pre - dict - ed hour, The ag - es'

peo - ples, long un - blest, All find their ev - er - last - ing
Gos - pel light a - glow, And all men their Re - deem - er men, in count - less host, Rise, heart and voice, to make sweet white, and flam - ing sands, Shall men lift ded - i - cat - ed light, from pole to pole, And end - less day by ev - ery di - a - dem and flower, When all shall find their re - fuge, rest, O Christ, in Thee?

know, O Christ, in Thee?
boast, O Christ, in Thee?
hands, O Christ, in Thee?
soul Be found in Thee?
tower, And home in Thee!