

God Holds the Key

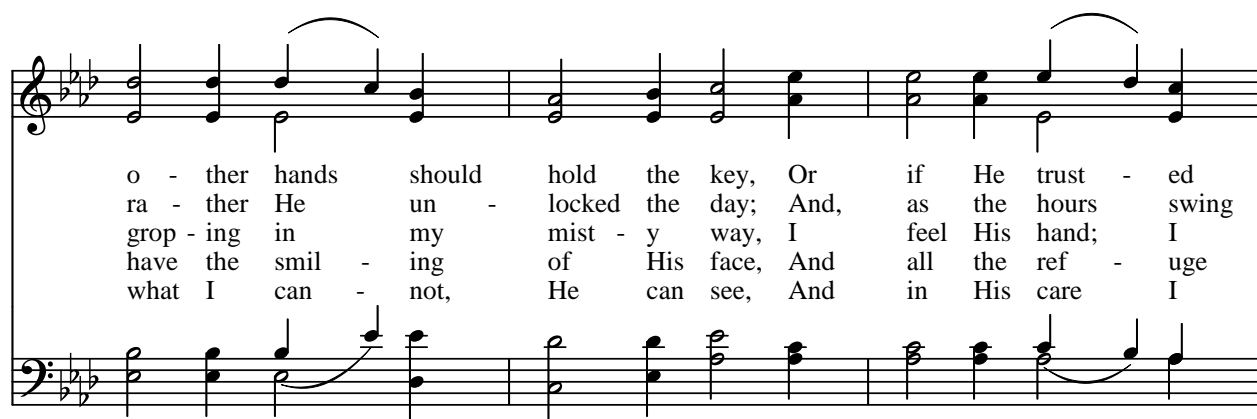

Joseph Parker, 1887

George Stebbins

$\text{♩} = 150$

1. God holds the key of all un - known, And I am glad; If
2. What if to - mor - row's cares were here With - out its rest! I'd
3. The ve - ry dim - ness of my sight Makes me se - cure; For,
4. I can - not read His fu - ture plans; But this I know; I
5. E - nough! this co - vers all my wants, And so I rest! For

o - ther hands should hold the key, Or if He trust - ed
ra - ther He un - locked the day; And, as the hours swing grop - ing in my mist - y way, I feel His hand; I have the smil - ing of His face, And all the ref - uge what I can - not, He can see, And in His care I

it to me, I might be sad, I might be sad.
o - pen, say, "My will is best, My will is best."
hear Him say, "My help is sure, My help is sure."
of His grace, While here be - low, while here be - low.
saved shall be, For - ev - er blest, for - ev - er blest.