

The God Who Answers by Fire

Lelia Naylor Morris, 1903

$\text{♩} = 85$

1. Two al - tars on a hill - side made, Two off - erings on the al - tar
 2. But now the faith - ful pro - phet, see, Up - on his God calls might - i -
 3. Up - on God's al - tars still we lay, Our hum - ble off - erings day by 4. As - scribe to God for - ev - er - more Thanks - giv - ing, hon - or, love and laid; Let Him be God, who hears our cry, And send - eth fire down from on

 - ly: "A - mong the peo - ple be it known, That Thou art God, and Thou a - day; Un - wor - thy tho' the sa - cri - fice, The gift of love He sanc - ti - power; To God the Fa - ther, God the Son, And God the Spir - it, three in high. From morn - ing light till close of day, Hear Ba - al's pro - phets loud - ly

 - lone." And ev - en while E - li - jah calls, Be - hold, the fire from Heav - en
 - fies, He heeds the heart's sin - cere de - sire, And sends the Ho - ly Ghost and One. In songs of praise as - cend - ing higher, To Him who an - swers still by pray.

Refrain

 falls.
 fire. The God who an - swers by fire, The God who an - swers by fire, Let fire.

Him, let Him, let Him be God. The God who an - swers by fire, The God who an - swers by fire Let Him, let Him, let Him be God.