

Hail, Happy Morning

Philip Paul Bliss, 1871

$\text{♩} = 105$

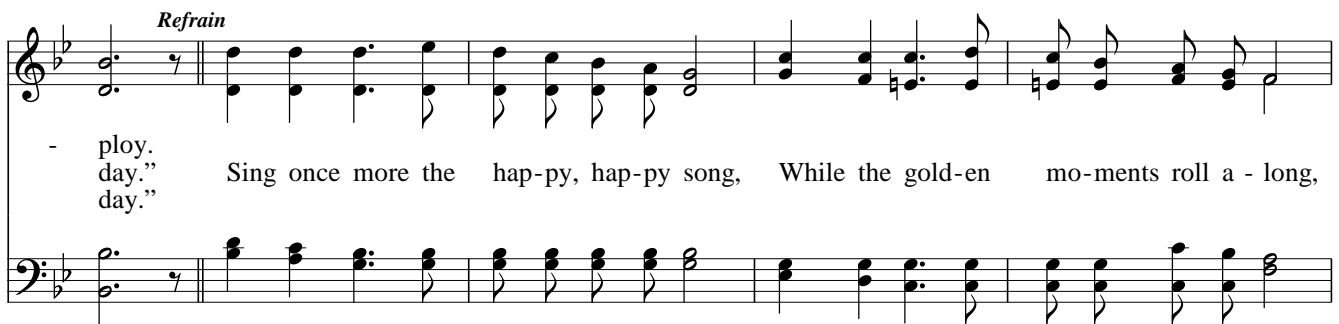

1. Hail hap - py morn - ing, hail, ho - ly day, Call - ing from earth - ly
2. Em - blem of hea - ven, sweet day of rest, In thy "re - mem - brance,"
3. Rest from our la - bors, rest from our cares, Rest in our prais - es, la - bors a - way, Sweet words of wis - dom, glad songs of joy, Now be our best em - may we be blessed. So may our songs and lives ev - er say, "Hal-low the Sab-bath rest in our prayers, So the com-mand-ment would we o - bey, "Hal-low the Sab-bath

Refrain

- ploy.
day."
day." Sing once more the hap-py, hap-py song, While the gold-en mo-ments roll a - long,

"Come to the temp-le, come, come a - way, Hal-low the Sab-bath day."