Parts

♩ = 200

1. There is a Shep - herd who cares for His own, and He is mine;
2. Je - sus left hea - ven my Sav - ior to be, and He is mine;
3. There is a Com - fort - er come from a - bove, He, too, is mine,

No - thing am I, He's a King on a throne, but He is mine;
I am not worth all He suf - fered for me, but He is mine;
Com - ing to me to re - veal Je - sus' love, and that is mine;

How can He love such a sin - ner as I, though He is mine,
Though I'm not wor - thy He dwells in my heart, and He is mine;
Shep - herd and Sav - ior, and Com - fort - er, too, They all are mine;

Refrain

I can - not fa - thom though oft - en I try, but He is mine.
From Him I'll ne - ver, no, ne - ver de - part, for He is mine. He is mine;
That's why I know the old stor - y is true, They all are mine.

He is mine; Though it is won - der - ful, yet it is true, That He is mine.
