

He Is Not Far Away

R. A. Chase, 1909

Winifred Chase

$\text{♩} = 108$

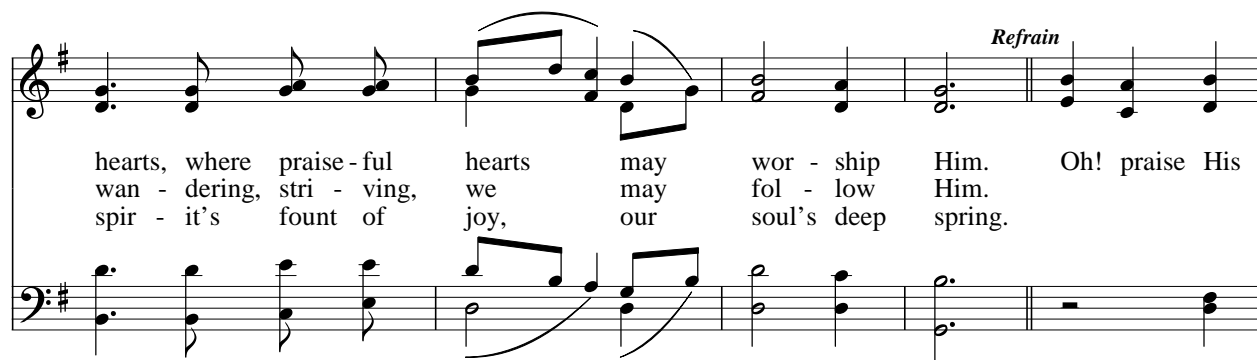

1. He is not far from ev-ery one of us, His power and wis-dom shine from peak and
2. He is not far from ev-ery one of us, Our bo - dies tem-ples are our souls that
3. He is not far from ev-ery one of us, He near - er is than breath or feet or plain. The vault - ed heav'ns out - stretch a star - lit fane, Where praise; De - clare His pre - sence all our var - ied ways, Where hands; He dear - er is than friend or home or lands, The hearts, where praise - ful hearts may wor - ship Him. Oh! praise His wan - dering, stri - ving, we may fol - low Him.

Refrain

spir - it's fount of joy, our soul's deep spring.

name since He is near to - day, Let whis - pered praise de-Let whis-pered praise, let whis - pered praise

- clare love's ho-ly fear; Let dai-ly ser-vice speak the heart's full cheer, The Lord is ours, the Lord is ours, He is not far a - way.