

A Home in My Heart for Jesus

Lanta Wilson Smith, 1900

James Milton Black

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. There's a home in my heart for Je-sus, In the heart He has cleansed from
2. There's a home in my heart for Je-sus, There's a sym - pa - thy rare and
3. There's a home in my heart for Je-sus, And He whis - pers that all is sin; 'Tis the shrine of a deep de - vo - tion, And my Sav-ior a - bides with - in.

sweet; There are days of di - vine com - mun-ion, When His pre-sence is bliss com - plete.
well; In the light of His love a - bid - ing, There's a joy that no words can tell.

Refrain

There's a home in my heart, And Je - sus a - bides with - There's a home in my heart, a -

- in; He will al-ways be a friend to me, There's a home in my heart for Him.
- bides with-in;