

It Is I, Be Not Afraid

D. A. Woodworth, 1901 (arranged)

S. Foster Ames, 1917

$\text{♩} = 82$

1. Are you weak in faith and doubt-ing? Doubt no more, be not dis - mayed, Doubt not
 2. In your hours of dark fore-bod - ing, In dis - trust of earth-ly aid, Hear the
 3. He who knows our ev - ery weak-ness, He to ev - ery-one hath said, "Be not
 4. Do you fear to cross the riv - er? There is naught for you to fear, Je - sus

rit. Refrain

Je - sus' words as - sur - ing, "It is I, be not a - afraid."
 gra - cious Lord pro - claim - ing, "It is I, be not a - afraid." Be not a - faith - less, but be - liev - ing, It is I, be not a - afraid."
 calls you, list - en to Him, "I'll be there to bless and cheer."

- afraid, be not dis - mayed, It is I, be not a -
 Be not a - afraid, be not dis - mayed, It is I,

- afraid.
 be not a - afraid.