

Jesus, the Helper

Etta Harbour, 1897

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩ = 97

1. Je - sus is the help-er of the trou - bled heart, And to those who sor - row He will
2. Thro' the vale of sha - dows all must some-time go, When the heart seems break-ing with its
3. When a heart is si - lent that for you beats true, Christ is by you stand-ing; He will strength im - part: Strength for ev - ery tri - al He will sure - ly give, weight of woe. In that hour, when an - guish chills your heart and brow, com - fort you; "Weep not," Je - sus bids you dry the fall - ing tear;

Refrain

If we sim - ply trust Him, and His Word be - lieve. Help-er di - vine, Thou art ev - er near, Hear His gen - tle whis - per, "I am with you now."
From the grave is ban - ished all its dark - ness drear. Thou art ev - er near,

Whis - pering a pro - mise faint - ing souls to cheer, Help - er di - vine, Thou art ev - er near,
Thou art ev - er near,

Whis - pering a pro - mise faint - ing souls to cheer.