

Lord, Source of All Blessing

Richard W. Adams, 2001

Virgil Corydon Taylor, 1850

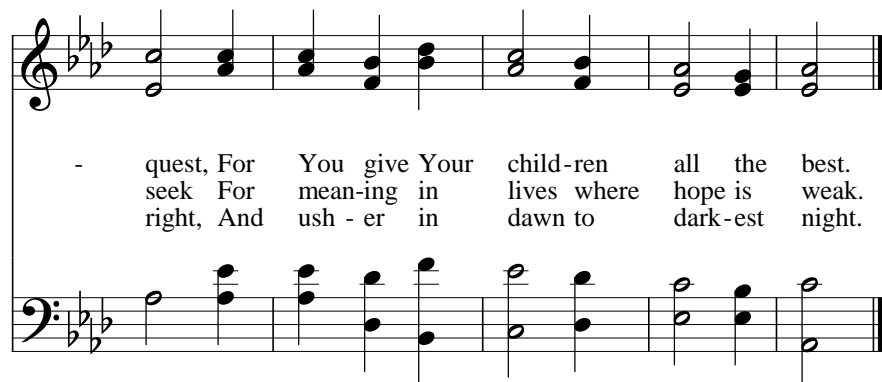

$\text{♩} = 125$

1. Lord, Source of all bless-ing, bless us in - deed; For Yours is the
2. En - large, too, our boun-daries, so that we may Be - gin great - er
3. Lord, while are are striv - ing, give us Your hand To help spread Your boun-ty, and ours is the need; We trust to Your wis - dom, in this rework for Your kingdom this day; May we be a bless-ing, to those who Wo - rd through - out the land; Let us do not e - vil, seek on - ly

- quest, For You give Your child-ren all the best.
seek For mean-ing in lives where hope is weak.
right, And ush - er in dawn to dark-est night.