

Mine Eyes Have Seen the Dawning

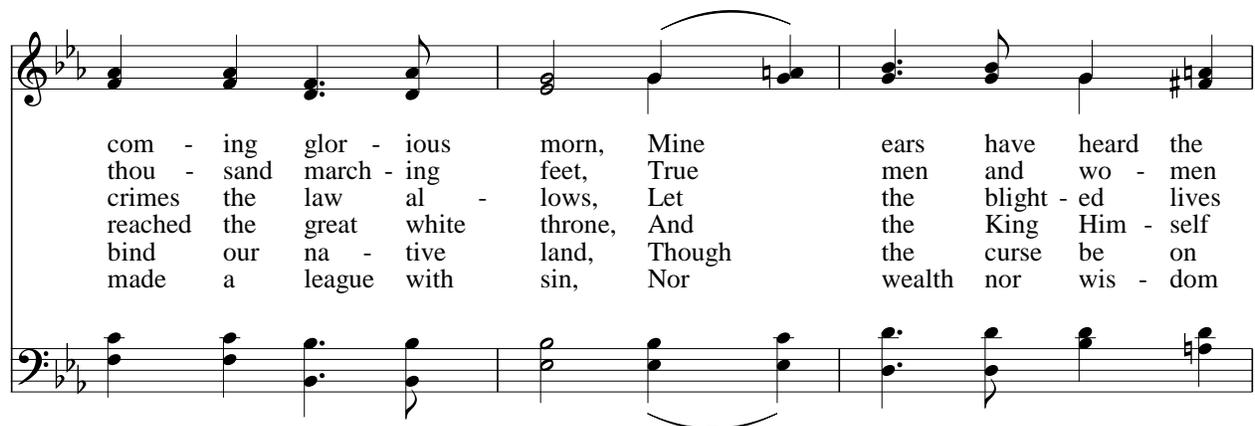

R. H. Thomas

Carey Bonner, 1905

$\text{♩} = 110$

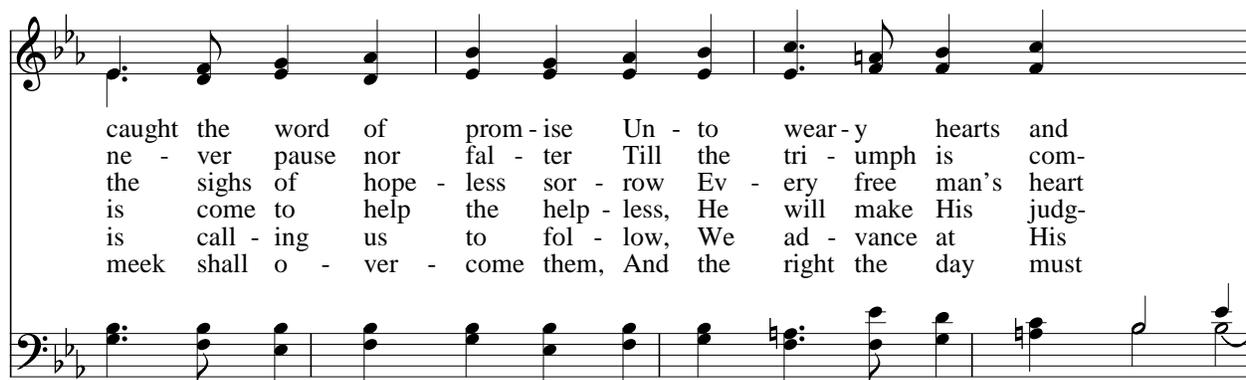

1. Mine eyes have seen the dawn - ing Of a 2. I can hear the stead - y tramp - ing Of ten 3. Let the sobs of help - less child - ren Crushed by 4. The cries of all earth's lit - tle ones Have 5. Though the chains of sin be hea - vy, And they 6. No mul - ti - tude is might - y That has com - ing glor - ious morn, Mine ears have heard the thou - sand march - ing feet, True men and wo - men crimes the law al - lows, Let the blight - ed lives reached the great white throne, And the King Him - self bind our na - tive land, Though the curse be on made a league with sin, Nor wealth nor wis - dom an - gels' song, They sang when Christ was born; I have mov - ing on Through high - way, lane and street; They will of wo - men, Lost through man - hood's brok - en vows, Let has heark - ened, He has made their griefs His own; He the na - tions, Yet our God has raised His hand; He can de - fend, When e - vil rules with - in, For the caught the word of prom - ise Un - to wear - y hearts and ne - ver pause nor fal - ter Till the tri - umph is com - the sighs of hope - less sor - row Ev - ery free man's heart is come to help the help - less, He will make His judg - is call - ing us to fol - low, We ad - vance at His meek shall o - ver - come them, And the right the day must worn, That God is march - ing on.

 - plete, With God they're march - ing on. a - rouse, Since God is march - ing
 - ments known, His strength is march - ing com - mand; With Him we're march - ing win, Since God is march - ing on.