

My House Will Stand

Herbert J. Bryce, 1918

Daniel Brink Towner

♩ = 103

1. Are you build - ing your house on the rock or the sand, Are you
2. O the Lord is the Rock; our Found - a - tion is tried, And is
3. Though the bil - lows may beat and the hur - ri - cane blow, I am liv - ing for time or the ag - es to be? Do you know that your struc - ture, though change - less to - day as in cen - tu - ries flown, Though by men once re - ject - ed, He fear - less and calm in the face of the gale; For the Word of Je - ho - vah is shak - en, will stand, Un - harmed by the tem - pests which sweep o'er the sea?

Refrain

still doth a - bide, He's the blest Rock of Ag - es, the great Liv - ing Stone. Let sure, and I know, Having built on my Sav - ior, they can - not pre - vail.

rains de - scend and tem - pests sweep; Let floods a - rise and bil - lows leap; My house will stand 'neath ev - ery shock, For I have built up - on the Rock