

O Brother, Life's Journey Beginning

Ira David Sankey, 1887

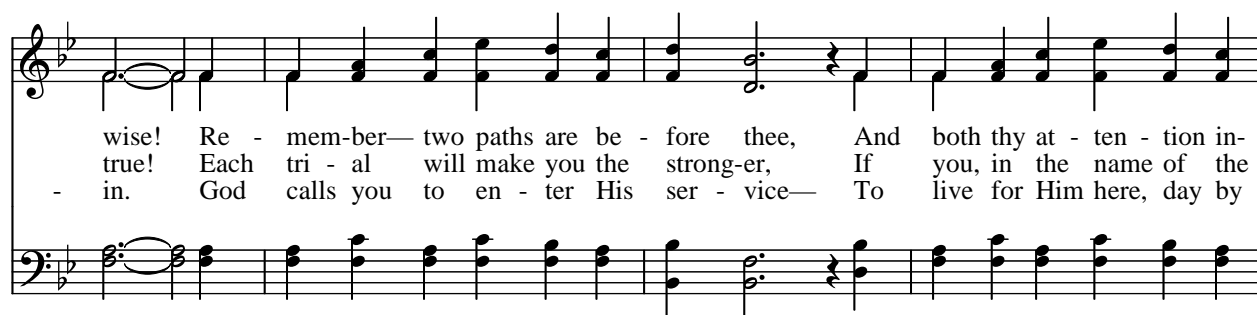

$\text{♩} = 180$

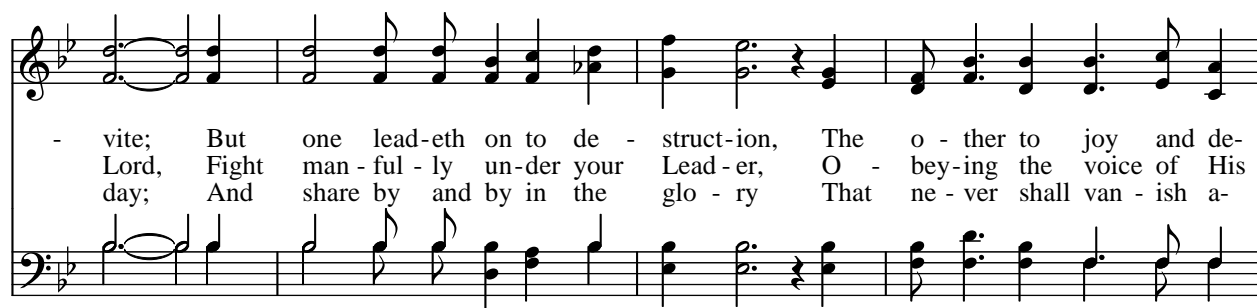

1. O bro - ther, life's jour - ney be - gin - ning, With cour - age and firm - ness a -
2. O bro - ther, yield not to the tempt - er, No mat - ter what o - thers may
3. O bro - ther, the Sav - ior is call - ing! Be - ware of the dan - ger of

- rise! Look well to the course thou art choos - ing; Be ear - nest, be watch - ful, and do; Stand firm in the strength of the Mas - ter, Be loy - al, be faith - ful, and sin; Re - sist not the voice of the Spir - it, That whis - pers so gent - ly with - wise! Re - mem - ber— two paths are be - fore thee, And both thy at - ten - tion in - true! Each tri - al will make you the strong - er, If you, in the name of the

- in. God calls you to en - ter His ser - vice— To live for Him here, day by

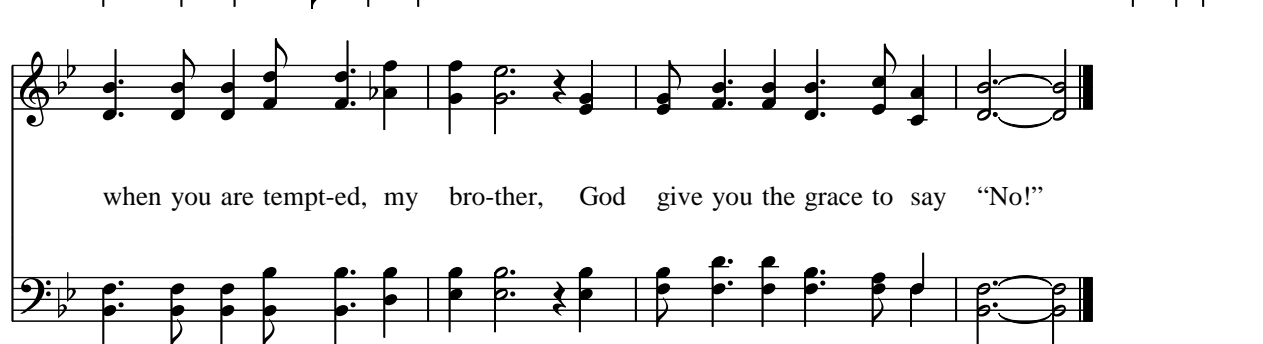

- vite; But one lead - eth on to de - struct - ion, The o - ther to joy and de - Lord, Fight man - ful - ly un - der your Lead - er, O - bey - ing the voice of His day; And share by and by in the glo - ry That ne - ver shall van - ish a -

Refrain

- light.
Word. God help you to fol-low His ban-ner, And serve Him wher-ev-er you go; And
- way.

when you are tempt-ed, my bro-ther, God give you the grace to say "No!"