

Our Father's Business

Inge Eildert Diekenga, 1888

$\text{♩} = 112$

1. Let us be a - bout our Fa - ther's busi - ness, Ev - 'ry day, as we go On our
2. Do you ask what is the work He sends us? 'Tis what - e'er we can do, 'Tis to 3. When in Heav - en and the toil is end - ed, Oh, what bliss it will be In that way here be - low: Nev - er let it suf - fer thro' re - miss - ness, But bear and be true, And to use the tal - ents that He lends us, That place then to see Those dear souls whom we on earth be - friend - ed, And seek to make it thrive and grow. o - thers may ac - cept Him too. Then re - spond to the call, He has use for us all, And His led to Him Who made them free.

Refrain

work is a la - bor of love; And the days soon will come In the great Har - vest Home, For our rest and re-joic-ing a - bove.