

Oh, What Wilt Thou Do?

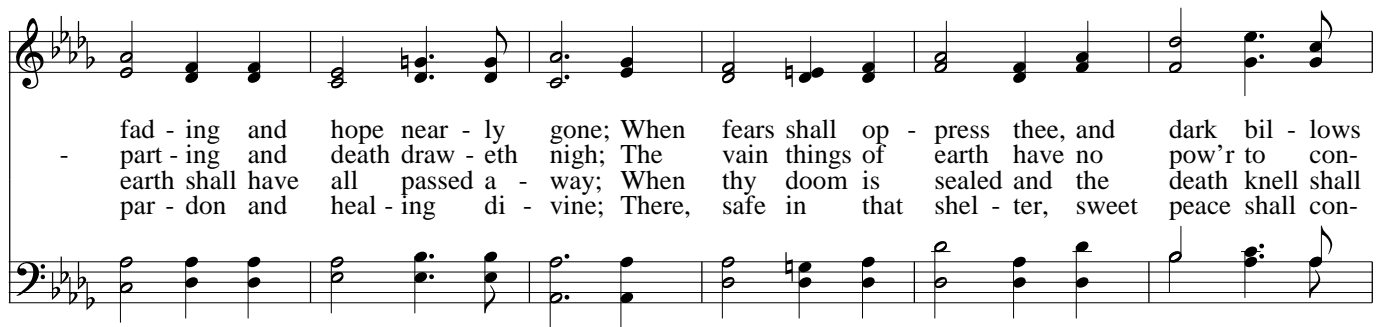

Lottie A. Newman, 1895

Harry C. Jones

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. Oh, what wilt thou do when the night com - eth on, When day - light is
2. Oh, what wilt thou do when the tide ris - eth high, When life is de -
3. Oh, what wilt thou do in the great judg - ment day, When Heav - en and
4. Oh, fly to the ref - uge, while still there is time, While God of - fers

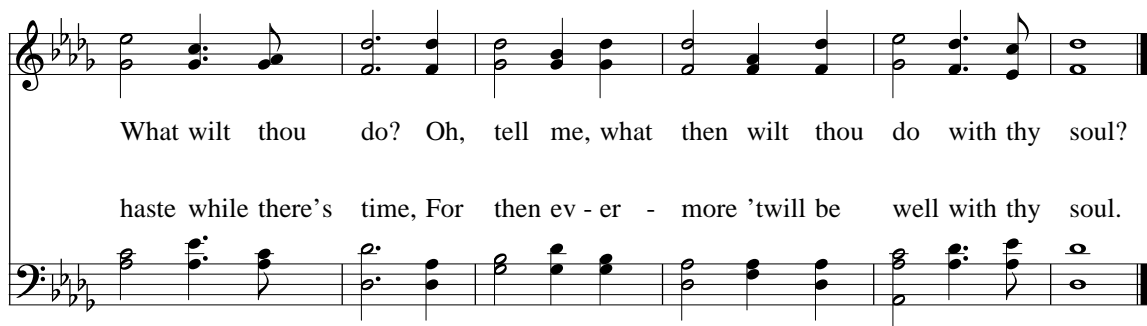

- fad - ing and hope near - ly gone; When fears shall op - press thee, and dark bil - lows
- part - ing and death draw - eth nigh; The vain things of earth have no pow'r to con - earth shall have all passed a - way; When thy doom is sealed and the death knell shall par - don and heal - ing di - vine; There, safe in that shel - ter, sweet peace shall con -

Refrain

- roll, Oh, tell me, what then wilt thou do with thy soul? What wilt thou do?
- sole; Oh, tell me, what then wilt thou do with thy soul?
- toll, Oh, tell me, what then wilt thou do with thy soul?
- trol; For then ev - er - more 'twill be well with thy soul. Haste while there's time,

What wilt thou do? Oh, tell me, what then wilt thou do with thy soul?
haste while there's time, For then ev - er - more 'twill be well with thy soul.