

O'er Land and Sea

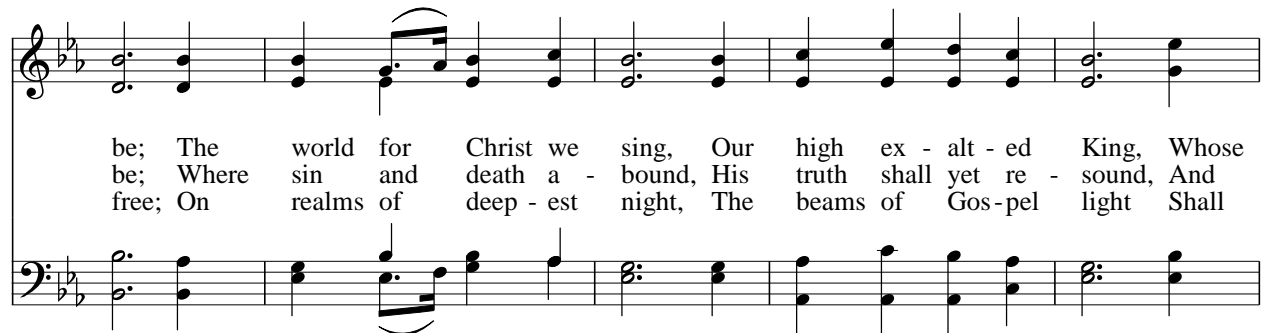

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1898

Ira David Sankey

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. On, like the true and brave; In Him, the strong to save, Our boast shall
2. Firm as the hills a - bove Nor time or change can move, His Word shall
3. Soon shall He come to reign, And from the ty - rant's chain The world set be; The world for Christ we sing, Our high ex - alt - ed King, Whose be; Where sin and death a - bound, His truth shall yet re - sound, And free; On realms of deep - est night, The beams of Gos - pel light Shall praise from all shall ring O'er land and sea.

all shall hear the sound O'er land and sea.
rise in splen - dor bright O'er land and sea.