

The Old, Old Way

Frances J. (Fanny) Crosby, 1899

Charles Bentley

J=105

1. Is your hope of glo - ry bright? Are you walk - ing in the light, Ev - er
 2. Have you tak - en up the cross? Do you count the world but dross, For the
 3. Tho' your foes may all u - nite, Will you bat - tle for the right, And the 4. O the bliss of those who trust In the on - ly wise and just, And are shin - ing from the Sav - ior's throne? Have you gone to Him for rest, When your splen - dor you in Christ may see? To His quest - ion, "Who will go," And His won - ders of the Lord pro - claim? Will you stand with cour - age brave And the look - ing for a home a - bove; If your lot with them is cast You will heart was sore op - pressed? Are you trust - ing in His arm a - lone? love to sin - ners show, Will you an - swer "Here am I, send me"? Are you roy - al ban - ner wave, Shout - ing vic - t'ry thro' the Mas - ter's name?

Refrain

 an - chor safe at last In the ha - ven of e - ter - nal love.

walk - ing in the light, In the bless - èd, bless - èd light? Is it shin - ing in your soul to - day? With a firm a - bid - ing faith that will tri - umph o - ver death, Are you walk - ing in the old, old way?