

On Which Side Will You Be Found?

John H. Alleman, 1897

Charles King Langley, Sr.

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. When the pen - du - lum of time shall for - ev - er cease to swing, And Je-
2. When the Book is o - pened there in the pre - sence of the King, And the
3. There the se - crets of the heart, good or e - vil tho' they be, He the

- ho - vah's trump o'er all the earth shall sound; When the na - tions all shall rise, march - ing
mil - lions crowd the judg - ment bar a - round; When the hosts of great and small, o - ver right - eous Judge will her - ald far and near; When the na - tions He di - vides, as the forth in sol - emn tread, Tell, oh, tell me, on which side will you be found? On the Lord's side, on the there be - fore Him stand, With the just up - on the right will you be found?

Refrain

shep - herd doth his sheep, Tell, oh, tell me, on which side will you ap - pear?

Lord's side, I will an - swer when Je - ho - vah's trump shall sound; On the Lord's side, on the shall sound

Lord's side, Safe - ly ga - thered with the faith - ful I'll be found.