

Redeemed, and with the Price of Blood

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1881

John Robson Sweney

♩=115

1. Re - deemed, and with the price of blood, Which Thou hast shed for me, I
 2. Re - deemed, no long - er dead in sin, But raised by pow'r di - vine, My
 3. Re - deemed, my heart is filled with praise, My soul true com - fort knows, And
 4. Re - deemed, I'll tell it o'er and o'er; Re - deemed my song shall be, My stand, a mon - u - ment of grace, A wit - ness, Lord, for Thee.

Refrain

 tongue, re - joic - ing, cries a - loud, All glo - ry, Lord, be Thine.
 dai - ly feels the calm of peace, That like a riv - er flows. Re-watch - word through the vale of death, My pass - port home to Thee.

- deemed, and made by simp - le faith An heir of heav - en a - bove! Oh, love sur - pass - ing hu - man thought! Oh, vast, un - mea - sured love!