

Rejoice, Rejoice, the Lost Is Found

Frank Leslie Bristow, 1889

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Joy - ful - ly march a - long, and shout the song To the
 2. Wan - der - er far a - way from love to - day, In the
 3. Joy - ful - ly an - gels bring the sig - net ring, Of a 4. Heav - en - ly home! sweet home! How sweet to roam Thro' thy earth's re - mot - est bound, "Sal - va - tion's come, the wan-d'rer's home. The sea of sin so low, A call from home now bids you "come," A-Fa - ther's par - d'ning grace, And roy - al fare, they now pre - pare, Be-realm of beau-ty rare, With an - gel throng, join in a song Of lost one now is found." Re - joice! Re - joice! with heart and voice; Re-

 - rise and say, "I'll go." Your va - cant chair is wait - ing there, And
 - fore His smil - ing face, A - way with fears! a - way with tears! Re-joy be - yond com - pare. "Re - deem - er! King!" for - ev - er sing The

Refrain

- peat the wel - come sound!
 rai - ment white as snow!
 - ceive His fond em - brace! With songs of joy, your loved ones ga - thered there!

tongues em - ploy, And re - peat the wel - come sound, "Sal - va - tion's come! The wan-d'rer's home, The lost one now is found!"