

The Soul Cheering Promise

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1896

George N. Rockwell

$\text{♩} = 100$

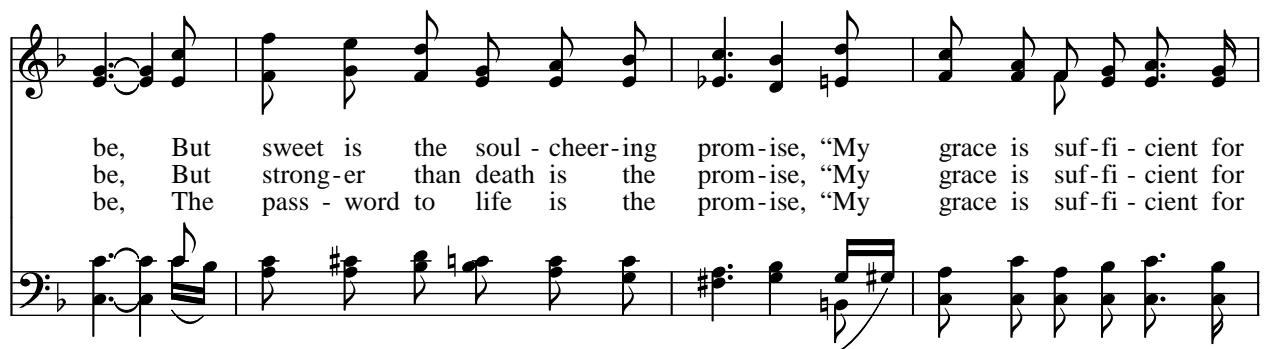

1. We know not the tri - als be - fore us, But Je - sus takes thought for them
2. We know not the tri - als be - fore us, But why; should we trem - ble or 3. We know not the tri - als be - fore us, The sor - rows and cares we shall all, And trust - ing the aid of His coun - sel, We nev - er, no, nev - er can fear? The arm of the Lord will pro - tect us, The ark of His mer - cy is meet, But O there's a re - fuge in Je - sus, Though surg - es may break at our fall; We know not the tri - als be - fore us, Or what on the mor - row may near; We know not the tri - als be - fore us, Or what our tempt - a - tions may feet; How bless - ed that re - fuge for - ev - er Where safe from the storm we shall be, But sweet is the soul - cheer - ing prom - ise, "My grace is suf - fi - cient for be, But strong - er than death is the prom - ise, "My grace is suf - fi - cient for be, The pass - word to life is the prom - ise, "My grace is suf - fi - cient for thee.”

Refrain

thee.”
thee.”

Then cleave to the Sav-ior, cleave to Him, What - ev - er the con - flict may be, Re - mem-ber the soul-cheer-ing prom-ise, “My grace is suf-fi - cient for thee.”

