

Some One Who Knows

Carrie Elizabeth Ellis Breck, 1916

Edwin Othello Excell

$\text{♩} = 90$

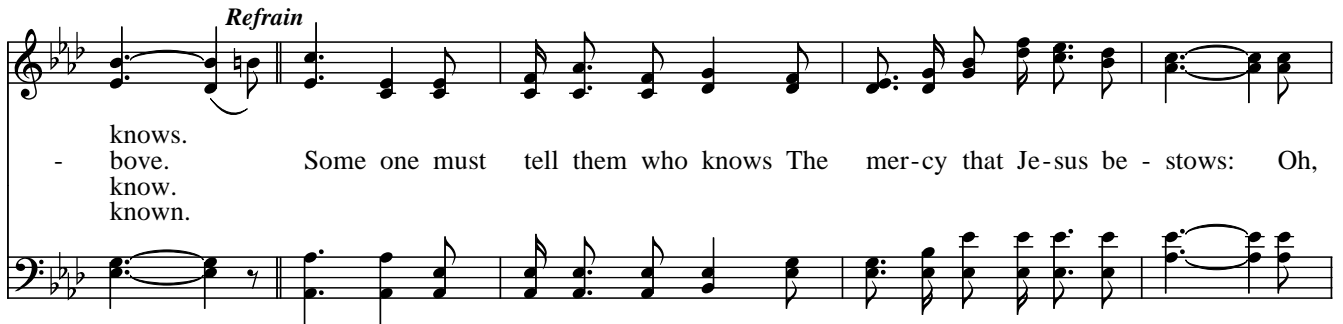

1. How ma - ny are lost in the dark - ness, With spir - its whose sor - row o'er-
 2. Go forth to the need-y and love them With some-thing of Je - sus' own 3. They're wait - ing, per-haps for your com - ing; You sure - ly will hast-en to 4. Wher - ev - er are sin - ners a - round you, By woe or temp - ta - tion o'er-

- flows; They know not of Christ or sal - va - tion, Ah! some one must tell them who love, And win them to share in His king - dom Of glad - ness and glo - ry a - go, And teach them of life ev - er - last - ing, The won - der - ful Gos - pel you
 - thrown, Oh, bid them take free - ly God's bless - ing, Make Je - sus the Com - fort - er knows.

Refrain

 - bove. Some one must tell them who knows The mer - cy that Je - sus be - stows: Oh, know.
 known.

let the Light shine, Tell the mess - age di - vine, For some one must tell them who knows.