

Someone Is Looking to You

William McPherson Lighthall, 1901

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel, 1906

♩ = 95

1. Let your light shine wher-so - e'er you go, Some-one is look-ing to you!
2. Some-one is grop-ing his way to God, Some-one is look-ing to you!
3. Some-one your coun-sel will sure-ly take, Some-one is loo-king to you!
4. Some-one has al-most ac-cept-ed Him, Some-one is look-ing to you!

Bright-er each day let it gleam and glow, Some-one is look-ing to you!
Fol-low-ing on where your feet have trod, Some-one is look-ing to you!
And by your life his de-ci-sion make, Some-one is look-ing to you!
And may be lost if your light grows dim, Some-one is look-ing to you!

Refrain

Look-ing to you, yes, look-ing to you! Let your light shine the dark-ness through;

O be faith-ful, be loy-al, and true, For some-one is look-ing to you!