

Stand Firm

George Newell Lovejoy

Clarence B. Strouse, 1900

♩=80

1. Stand firm when the en - e - my charg - es Your ranks in all his might, When
 2. Stand firm, and not for an in - stant Let the cow - ard's tho't be yours, Or
 3. Stand firm, an - d s - o shall fal - ter The en - e - my at last, Grow sore, in - deed, is the dan - ger, Which lies in the hot, fierce fight; Cow'r the heart that's weak and trem - bling, Nor the heart that not en - dures; But weak, and yield th - e con - quest, And the tri - a - l will be past; And not in that hour of con - flict When the test comes un - to you; But in that hour of hours To steel your breast to the con - flict, With cour - age your soul en - due, And in that hour of hours To so sha - ll glo - rious vic - t'ry O'e - r sin come un - to you, Since you, in that hour of hours To ritard. Refrain

God, and your-self be true!
 God, and your-self be true! We are sol-diers, sol - diers, Sol-diers of a heav'n-ly King, We are God, and your-self be true!

sol-diers, sol-diers, And we'll make His prais-es ring, We'll make His prais-es ring for - ev - er.