

Sunshine Song

Arr. from Earl Alonzo Brinenstool, 1917

Frederick Augustus Fillmore

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. In spite of gloom and dark - ness, Keep fac - ing t'ward the light, Keep
2. In spite of all your sor - row, O let your spir - it fly, To 3. We'll ga - ther with our loved ones Up - on the sil - v'ry strand, Our look - ing for the sun - shine, Tho' hid - den from your sight; For where the sun is sh - ining A - bove the cloud - ed sky; A doubts and fears will van - ish, And we will un - der - stand, The

at the dawn of morn - ing, So beau - ti - ful and bright, The bless - ed sun - shine bet - ter day is com - ing, A dawn of glo - ry bright, The sun - shine of God's beau - ty and the bright - ness Of Heav - en's sun - kissed shore, The sun - shine of God's com - ing Will drive a - way the night. Sun - shine, sun - shine, pre - sence Will drive a - way the night. pre - sence Is there for - ev - er - more. Sun - shine, bright sun - shine, in

Refrain

Soft and gen-tle from a - bove, Sun-shine, sun-shine, Tok-en of a Fa-ther's gen - tle rays from a-bove, Sun-shine, the tok-en of our Heav'n-ly love; Sun - shine, sun - shine, Light - ing all the drear - y Fa - ther's love; Sun - shine, glad sun - shine, to light all the way, Sun-shine, sun-shine, Turn-ing dark-ness in-to day. drear-y way, Sun-shine, blest sun-shine,