1. Oh, beau - ti - ful sto - ry of Je - sus our Lord, That
2. How full of com - pass - ion was Je - sus our Lord, The
3. But when in that sto - ry we read how He prayed A - 4. But now He has tri - umphed o'er death and the grave, He bright-ens and hal - lows each page of His Word, It tells us how hum - ble and sick and af - flict - ed to health He re - stored, The poor He re - mem - bered, the

- lone in the gar - den, be - neath its dark shade, How, scorned and in - sult - ed, He lives our Re - deem - er, and might - y to save; To Him who ex - alt - ed for -

Sweet stor - y of Je - sus! though

Fine Refrain

low - ly His birth, How ma - ny His tri - als and sor - rows on earth. hun - gry He fed, And gave to the weep - ing their friends from the dead. Sweet died for our sake, Our hearts at his an - guish are rea - dy to break.
- ev - er shall live, All hon - or, do - min - ion, and glor - y we give.

oft it is told, We love it, we love it— it ne - ver grows old.
