

Thy Brother Calls to Thee

Joseph F. Berry, 1896

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

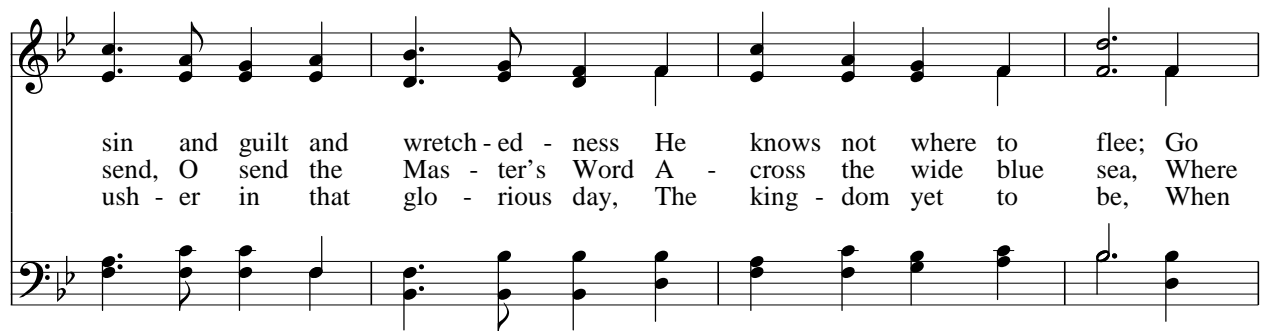

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. A - wake, O Christ-ian, from thy sleep, And heed thy bro - ther's call! He
2. 'Mid deep - est gloom and dark - est night He lifts his help - less hands; Can
3. O save the lost, the sin - ner turn! To blind men send the light! O cries to thee a - cross the deep, Where dark - est sha - dows falls. From aught but Je - sus give him light Or break his cru - el bands? Then let thy soul with ar - dor burn To lead them to the right; Then sin and guilt and wretch - ed - ness He knows not where to flee; Go send, O send the Mas - ter's Word A - cross the wide blue sea, Where ush - er in that glo - rious day, The king - dom yet to be, When tell him how the Lord can bless! Thy bro-ther calls to thee.

Ma-ce - don-ia's cry is heard! Thy bro-ther calls to thee.
all shall own the Mas-ter's sway! Thy bro-ther calls to thee.