

The Third Day

George Crawford Hugg, 1903

$\text{♩} = 92$

1. Soft the even - ing bells are ring - ing, Night her sa - ble shade is
 2. Ro - man guards their vi - gils keep - ing, Birds on dew - gemmed bough are
 3. See the arm - èd sen - tries shak - ing! Lo, the seal - èd tomb is fling - ing, Death with dread - ful grip is cling - ing, To the form with - in the sleep - ing Brok - en heart - ed Ma - ry's weep - ing, While the King sleeps sweet - ly break - ing. And the Lord to life is wak - ing! Yea, He com - eth forth in

Refrain $\text{♩} = 140$

tomb.
 on. An - gels of light watch thro' the night! Wait - ing the glo - ri - ous dawn - might!

- ing, Know - ing full well, sin, death and hell, Van - quished will be in the morn - ing.