

There Is Sound of Rejoicing

Anonymous, before 1897

E. Husband

Maestoso

1. There is sound of re - joic - ing a - round the great throne,
2. And the soul may ap - proach to her God with - out dread,
3. But the hour draw - eth nigh when the an - gel shall stand
4. And the thun - ders shall roll, and the dead, great and small,

A whis - per of my - ri - ad wings; For the foe that ac - cus - eth us In mo - ment of praise of of pray'r; "Fear ye not," the bright an - gels of With foot on the si - le - nt shore; By the Lord he shall swear, as he
At the throne of the Judge shall stand; And the song shall re - sound thro' the lies cast down, And the choir of an - gels sings—God have said, "Glad tid - ings of joy we bear." Sal - lifts his hand, And that time shall be no more.

heav'n - ly hall, Of the saints at God's right hand.

- va - tion, and hon - or, and ma - jes - ty be, Lord of all pow - er and might un - to Thee.