

Transformed

Mrs. F. G. Burroughs, 1920, alt.

Bentley DeForest Ackley

♩ = 110

1. Dear Lord, take up our tan - gled strands, Where we have wrought in
 2. Touch Thou the sad, dis - cord - ant keys Of ev - ery trou - bled
 3. Where brok - en vows in frag - ments lie— The toil of wast - ed
 4. Take all the fail - ures, each mis - take Of our poor hu - man vain, That by the skill of Thy dear hands Some beau - ty may re - breast, And change to peace - ful har - mo - nies The sigh - ings of un - years— Do Thou make whole a - gain, we cry, And give a song for ways, Then, Sav - ior, for Thine own dear sake, Make them show forth Thy

Refrain

- main.
 - rest. Trans - formed by grace di - vine, The glo - ry shall be Thine; To tears.
 praise. Trans - formed The glo - ry

Thy most ho - ly will, O Lord, We now our all re - sign.