

The Upper Window

John C. Bieri

John C. Bieri

1. When God spoke un - to No - ah, and told him to build the ark, The
 2. "It may be that af - flic - tion will ra - ck and rend your frame, Un -
 3. "Per - haps you'll suf - fer loss - es, like ho - us - es, lands, and gold, And
 4. "It may be that be - reave - ment will ta - ke a loved one dear, A

Lord knew well the vess - el would cheer - less be and dark, So God said, "Build a
 - til your mor - tal bo - dy is seared with fe - vered flame; But do not be dis - you will feel you're home - less, and pen - ni - less, and old; But sweet - est peace and soul that brought you glad - ness, real hap - pi - ness and cheer; But it will cheer your win - dow, with out - look toward the sky, That when it's dark and lone - some, you'll

 - cour - aged, just lift your tear - dimmed eye, And through the up - per win - dow, you'll com - fort will lift your pain - ful sigh, When through the up - per win - dow, you'll sad heart, when loved ones from you fly, When through the up - per win - dow, you'll

Refrain

see Me stand - ing by."
 see Me stand - ing by." The storms will come, but fear not, oh, child - ren, I am nigh, And see Me stand - ing by."
 see Me stand - ing by."

through the up - per win - dow, you'll see Me stand - ing by.