

Waiting for Thy Coming

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1899

Ira David Sankey

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. We are wait - ing, bless - èd Sav - ior, We are watch - ing for the hour
2. We are wait - ing, bless - èd Sav - ior, We are watch - ing not in vain
3. We are wait - ing, bless - èd Sav - ior, For a un - ion, heart to heart,

When in ma - jes - ty de - scend - ing, Thou shalt come in might - y power;
For the cloud that bore Thee up - ward, And will bring Thee back a - gain.
With our dear ones o'er the riv - er, Where we nev - er - more shall part;

Then the sha - dows will be lift - ed, And the dark - ness rolled a - way,
Then, a - mong Thy ran - somed peo - ple, We shall tread the shin - ing way,
Then our sor - rows, in a mo - ment, Like a dream will pass a - way,

And our eyes be - hold the splen - dor Of the glor - ious crown - ing day.
And our eyes be - hold the splen - dor Of the glor - ious crown - ing day.
When our eyes be - hold the splen - dor Of the glor - ious crown - ing day.