

Wait, Patiently Wait

John Henry Kurzenknabe, 1889

L. H. Parthemore

♩ = 110

1. Our friends are gath - ering, one by one, To meet the bless - ed
2. What won - drous sounds the earth shall greet, When comes the mid - night
3. With lamps well trimmed, we'll watch and wait, All rea - dy for that
4. And then, the ran - somed hosts shall join A - round the great white

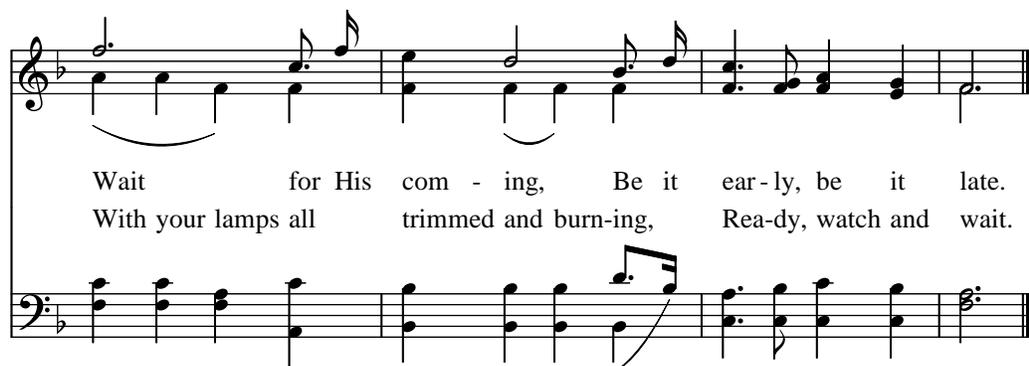

Lord; How soon this earth - ly jour - ney's done, And then the rich re - ward.
cry: "The Lord is come! go out to meet The Bride-groom pass - ing by."
day; And come He ear - ly, come He late, We'll meet Him on the way.
throne; All praise and glo - ry shall be Thine, Thou Lord and King a - lone.

Refrain

Wait, pa-tient-ly wait, Wait, pa-tient-ly wait;
Be not wea-ry watch-ing, wait-ing; Some go ear-ly, o - thers late;

Wait for His com - ing, Be it ear - ly, be it late.
With your lamps all trimmed and burn - ing, Rea - dy, watch and wait.
