

Wheresoe'er I Roam

Carl Olof Rosenius, trans V. O. Peterson

Danish Air

♩ = 105

1. Where - so - e'er I roam thro' val - leys drear - y, O - ver
2. All my needs e - ter - nal - ly sup - ply - ing, All in
3. Pierc - ed Heart, with love o'er - flow - ing, guide me, Help me mount - ains, or in path - less wood, Ev - er with me is a Friend to all to me that Friend shall be; Ev - 'ry - thing for which my heart is through life's des - ert find my way, Let my faith, no mat - ter what be-cheer me, Warn - ing, com - fort - ing as none else could. 'Tis the sigh - ing, He per - ceives, and helps me lov - ing - ly. Tho' I

- tide me, Find as - sur - ance in Thy wounds for aye. To Thy Shep - herd, Who once dy - ing, bleed - ing, Still through oft - en feel for - sak - en, lone - ly, He is bo - som— for this life is fleet - ing— Take me, all e - ter - ni - ty shall live; Fol - low - ing His flock, pro - tect - ing, ev - er near, for He did say: "I am with you al - way," and this wash my gar - ments in Thy blood, And a - ris - ing may I, at Thy feed - ing, He the tend - 'rest care doth give; Fol - low - on - ly Gives me cour - age on my way; "I am meet - ing, Cry with joy, "My Lord and God!" And a -

- ing His flock, pro - tect - ing, feed - ing, He the tend - 'rest care doth give.
 with you al - way," and this on - ly Gives me cour - age on my way.
 - ris - ing may I, at Thy meet - ing, Cry with joy, "My Lord and God!"