

Whispering Winds Softly Sighing

Lizzie DeArmond, 1906

W. A. Post

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Whis - per - ing winds soft - ly sigh - ing, day - light dy - ing,
2. Lul - la - bies ten - der - ly swell - ing, sweet - ly tell - ing,
3. Sil - ver - y e - choes are ring - ing, good news bring - ing,

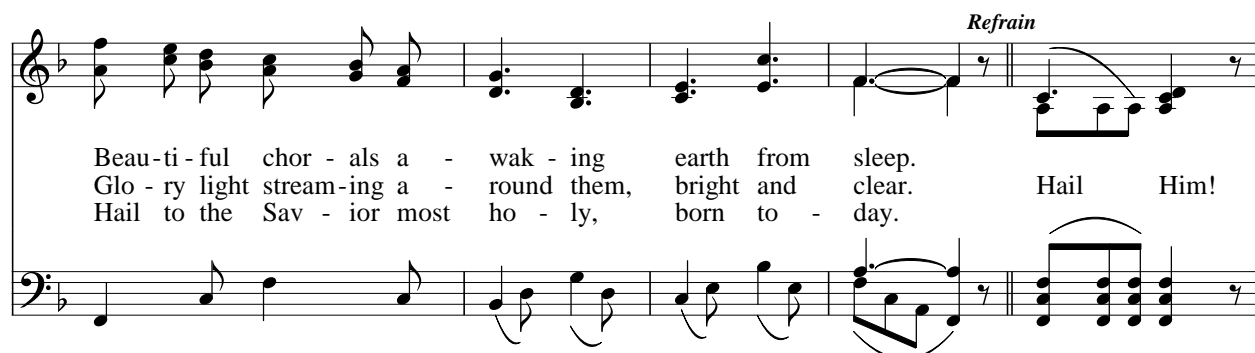

Stars thro' the low - bend - ing heav - ens slow - ly creep;
Je - sus the prom - ised Mes - si - ah, draw - eth near;
Blend - ing with songs of the an - gels far a - way,

Soprano & Alto

Flut - ter - ing wings of the an - gels swift de - scend - ing,
Hushed in - to won - der - ing si - lence, shep - herds list - en,
Breath - ing their sto - ry of glad - ness through the still - ness,

Refrain

Beau - ti - ful chor - als a - wak - ing earth from sleep.
Glo - ry light stream - ing a - round them, bright and clear. Hail Him!
Hail to the Sav - ior most ho - ly, born to - day.

hail Him! Je - sus the ho - ly. Hal - le - lu - jah, sing un-to His Name; Now and ev - er - more the same, Hail Him with glad - ness, His pow'r pro - claim.