

There Where the Judges Gather

1 There where the judg - es gath - er, a 2 "Deal just - ly with the need - y, pro - 3 God speaks: "I named you rul - ers, to great - er takes his seat; "How long," he asks the tact the fa - ther - less, de - liv - er the af - serve the Most High God; but you shall die as judg - es, "will you pro nounce de - ceit? How flic - ted from those who would op - press. But mor - tals and pe - rish by my rod." A - long show spe - cial fa - vor to those of ill re - you are whol ly blin - ded, you do not un - der - rise, O God, in judg - ment, your sov ereign - ty make pute? How _ long ne - glect the stand; there fore foun - da - tions _ known; for yours are all the or - phaned, the poor and des - ti - tute? tot - ter, in - just - ice rocks the land."

na - tions, the peo - ples are your own.