

How Good It Is to Thank the LORD

1 How good it is to thank the 2 O LORD my song with joy ex - 3 Though as the grass the wick - ed 4 O LORD you have ex - alt - ed 5 The right - eous all will flour - ish

LORD to praise your name with tune - ful pands be - fore the won - ders of your grow, those e - vil - do - ers do not me with roy - al strength and dig - ni - well and in the house of God will chord, to show your love with morn - ing light and hands. How great the works that you have wrought; how know the end - less ru - in they will see. But ty. With your a - noint - ing I am blest; your dwell. They will be plant - ed like a tree, will tell your faith - ful - ness each night. Yes, deep, O LORD your ev - ery thought! You God will reign e - ter - nal ly. All grace and fa - vor on me rest. My still in old age fruit - ful be. The

it is good you praise to sing and make me glad; I sing your praise for foes will fall be - fore his might; the eyes have seen the wick - ed die; my LORD our God is up - right, just; he all our sweet - est mu - sic bring.

 all your won - drou works and ways. wick - ed shall be put to flight.
 ears have heard their hope - less cry.
 is my Rock; in him I trust.