

How Lovely Is Your Dwelling

1 How love - ly is your dwell - ing, O 2 Be - neath your care the spar - row finds 3 Blest they who love and serve you, whose

Lord of hosts, to me; my soul is long - ing, place for peace - ful rest; to keep her young in joy and strength you are. For - e - ver they will faint - ing, the courts of God to see. The safe - ty the swal - low finds a nest. So, praise you, your ways are in their heart. Though beau - ty of your dwell - ing will Lord, my King Al - might - y, your tried, their tears like show - ers shall bring me joy a - new. My heart and flesh are love will shel - ter me; be - neath your wings of fill the springs of peace; and all the way to cry - ing, O liv - ing God, for you. mer - cy my dwell - ing place will be.

Zi - on their strength shall still in - crease.