

The Right Shall Rule

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1915

Joe Uthup, 2014

♩=110

1. A cry, a wild and pierc-ing cry, From bat-tle - field where mil - lions lie; The
2. With ir - on grasp and an - gry brow, The na - tions wield their scep-ter now, Com-
3. Thou great Su-preme and judge of all, While at Thy feet we hum-bly fall, O world at war our eyes be - hold, A strife whose like has ne'er been told.

- pel their own with stern com - mand, A - mid the ranks of death to stand.
grant our prayer, our ear - nest plea, That all the world at peace may be.

Refrain

War-riors sheath the flam-ing sword, The right shall rule through Christ the Lord, 'Twill not be long, 'twill not be long, O praise His name, 'twill not be long.