

Bits of Sunshine

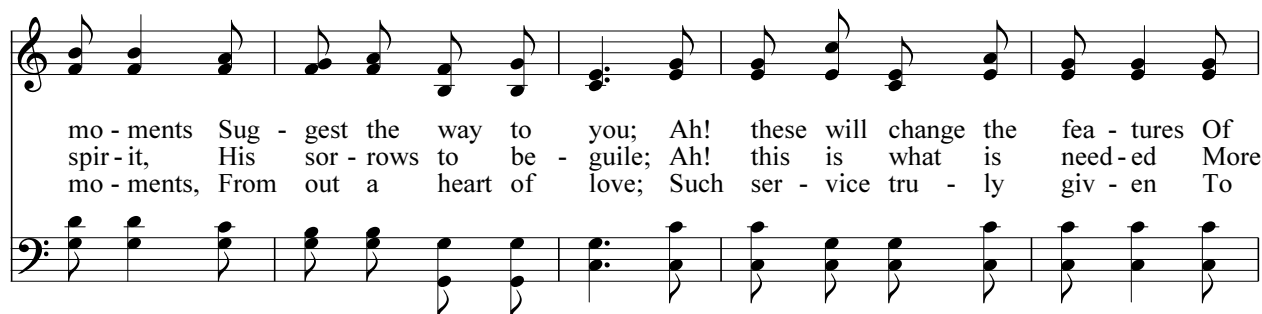

Isaiah Mench Chambers, 1901

Thomas O'Neill

$\text{♩} = 86$

1. A lit - tle bit of sun-shine, A lit - tle word or two, Just fall-ing as the
2. A lit - tle bit of sun-shine, E - nough to throw a smile Up - on some down-cast
3. These lit - tle bits of sun-shine Caught from the skies a - bove, Just fall-ing with the mo - ments Sug - gest the way to you; Ah! these will change the fea - tures Of spir - it, His sor - rows to be - guile; Ah! this is what is need - ed More mo - ments, From out a heart of love; Such ser - vice tru - ly giv - en To all the world's sad face, And give some soul the cour-age To stand with-in its oft - en than we know, By those whose hearts are ach - ing A - long their paths be-each will sure - ly bring, Its bless-ing here, and yon - der, From Christ our Lord and place.

Refrain

- low. Sun - shine; sun - shine, A lit - tle bit of sun - shine; Sun - shine; sun - shine, From king.

out a heart of love.